UPPER WEST

DISTRICT	SHORTLISTED APPLICANTS	JUSTIFICATION
DAFFIAMA/BUSSIE/ISSA	Mr. Nadi Imoro Sanda	The committee recommends Mr. Nadi Imoro Sanda to be nominated as the DCE. He is a Geodesist by profession and an immediate past parliamentary candidate of the constituency. He performed well by increasing the votes of the party by three thousand, three hundred and forty (3340), representing a percentage increase of 19.29%. He has good

		relationship with the Electoral Commission, the constituency executives and other key stakeholders in the District. Therefore maintaining him will help to promote the interest and build the party. The committee further recommends that Rita Yaloonaa Bayor should be groomed for leadership responsibility in the country as she has a great potential. The old DCE was an arm-chair person who did a poor job on marketing the party. He was not visible in the constituency. Missing Educational Background
JIRAPA DISTRICT	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Collins Kofi Tange</li> <li>2. Augustine Bawaabu</li> <li>3. Bayor Vitus Suglo</li> </ol>	The committee recommends Mr. Collins Kofi Tangye to be nominated as the DCE. Mr. Collins Kofi Tange, currently, is the Assistant Secretary of the Jirapa Constituency. He is the Assistant Director II. He was the 2020 D-Day Coordinator and a member of the Communication Team. He is strong with in-depth knowledge of the issues and politics of the constituency. Mr. Tange is a unifying personality within the constituency. He worked with all the stakeholders during the 2020 elections. He holds BSc in Mathematics, U.E.W. (2009-2013). The incumbent MCE has contributed extensively to the disunity in the party at the constituency. She controls a faction of the constituency executive has contributed a lot of problems. To maintain the incumbent MCE will deepen the factionalism in the constituency.
LAMBUSIE DISTRICT	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Naluri George Gerard</li> <li>2. Clara Diaka</li> <li>3. Braimah I. He is a Teacher and he is currently pursuing MA in Development Economic, UDS. He also holds BA in Economics, KNUST; 2009-2013. He also did HND in Statistics and Computer Science, Kumasi Polytechnic; 2002-2005).

		He represents the appropriate geopolitical strata of the constituency that is the Sissala ethnic group. His Sissala lineage will help him to mobilize the Sissala zones of the constituency. He seeks to improve the relationship between the Party and Government. He has strong support of his Member of Parliament for his ability to mobilize based on his contribution to the 20202 Parliamentary and Presidential Campaign. Clara Diaka on has huge potential which should be nurtured for the growth of the party in the constituency. The incumbent DCE has unresolved issues with the Member of Parliament thus his reappointment will create further problems in the constituency. The incumbent DCE contributions to the party are very woeful. He has unresolved issues with various stakeholders
NANDOM DISTRICT	1. Mr. Nero Raymond	The committee recommends Mr. Raymond to be nominated as the DCE. The committee received one application from Nandom District Assembly. Mr. Nero Raymond is the Constituency Secretary. He knows the constituency well. He is a very good mobilizer. He has the support of the entire constituency executive and the Member of Parliament. Missing Educational Background
LAWRA MUNICIPAL	1. Bomba-Ire Martin Domotiere	The committee decided that the incumbent Municipal Chief Executive Mr. Bomba-Ire Martin Domotiere is recommended to be renominated for the MCE position. The former District Manager of National Health Insurance had a very close relationship with the Member of Parliament. He works well with the constituency executive to promote the interest of the party in the district. He contributed to mobilize the constituents, but challenges associated with internal cohesion within the party as well as the ability of the National Democratic Congress to unite with one objective hampered the gains made.

		He holds Master of Arts in Human Resource Management, UCC; 2008-2010.
